BRIEF PROFESSIONAL BIO

Michelle is an author, speaker and entrepreneur and one of Australia's most engaging and thought provoking experts on creativity, culture and leadership. She helps thousands of people through talks, training and consulting to enjoy a life and business that is profitable and fulfilling. Michelle has been bringing creativity into the workplace for well over 15 years by showing how culture, leadership and creativity create prosperity. She runs a leadership and culture consulting business, and has founded a software company with her partner in business and life, that empowers education in the arts.

TOPICS

The SuperLeader Exposed

This talk explores the phenomenon of working extremely hard, compromising our wellbeing, only to fail a leadership. I call this The SuperLeader Syndrome. Based on Michelle's Book "The SuperLeader Syndrome: Working Hard and Failing at Leadership." Due for release early 2017.

Creating a Results Oriented Culture

Through years of research, trial and error, and experience working with business leaders across Australia, Michelle has discovered the four essential elements to creating cultures where success, satisfaction and sustainability happens.

Creating Culture on Day One

Specifically created for new or early entrepreneurs to provide them with the fundamental knowledge and skills so they can set the culture that they need for the success that they want, from day one.

Unleash the Slayer Within

Discover how to create a resilience that is fierce enough to protect you during difficult times, and a strength that is powerful enough to propel you towards your mission. A journey of female empowerment, with a twist of the shadow. Based on Michelle's Book "The Slayer Codex VOL1: Unleash the Slayer Within."
